

Marsha's House Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is Marsha's House?

A: Marsha's House is an 81-bed program that opened in 2016 as NYC's first emergency screened shelter for young adults between the ages of 18 and 35 who identify as being part of the LGBTQIA+ community. It is located in the Belmont section of the Bronx.

Q: What is a screened shelter?

A: A screened shelter is one that requires a client and staff interview to determine suitability for admission to the program.

Q: Is Marsha's House a mental health and/or substance use shelter?

A: No, however, we do consider clients with mental health and/or substance use conditions that are mild to moderate with supportive services in place.

Q: Is Marsha's House ADA Compliant?

A: Unfortunately, no, Marsha's House is not ADA compliant, it does not have an elevator, and is a 5-floor walk-up.

Q: What services does Marsha's House offer?

A: We offer Case Management, Housing Assistance, Gender Affirming Care, Medical via Project Renewal Inc., MedVan, Telepsychiatry, Occupational Therapy, Recreational Activities, and more!

Q: Are the sleeping areas dorms or rooms?

A: There are 3 dorms categorized by the following: Female, Male, and TGNC (Transgender & Gender Non-Conforming). Assignments are made based on how the client identifies. There are also 6 single rooms, generally reserved for those with DHS approved reasonable accommodation.

Q: What is the interview process for MH?

A: Collateral information such as a psychiatric evaluation & psychosocial assessment are requested from the referral source prior to the interview. No worries if you don't have them, you can still be interviewed. A program overview of Marsha's House is given followed by a conversation guided by questions regarding psychiatric, substance use, medical issues, and brief social history; then concludes with a tour of common areas.

Q: How can a provider refer a client to Marsha's House?

A: Please reach out to Rodrigue Marthone, Program Director at O: 929-445-5335 Ext. 250/Email: Rodrigue.Marthone@ProjectRenewal.org and Joel Henry, Director of Social Services at O: 929-445-5335 Ext. 398/E-mail: Joel.Henry@ProjectRenewal.org.

Q: When are interviews conducted?

A: Client interviews are generally conducted on Mondays and Wednesdays; however, we are flexible!

Q: Does a non-DHS provider have to go through DHS to refer a client for an interview?

A: Clients should have an open DHS Single Adult case because a CARES ID number is needed. Clients can be referred for an interview to Marsha's House by administrative staff, self-referral, community-based organizations, or their currently assigned shelter. Please reach out to us for more guidance, we are happy to work with you!

Q: Does a provider have to go through DHS to have a client assigned to Marsha's House?

A: Yes, once accepted, program staff will work with our DHS Administrator/Analyst to request that the client is transferred to Marsha's House, in CARES. We will notify you once confirmation is received to coordinate the physical transfer.
